In a sombre moment on Tuesday 11 November 2014, the school was led in an act of remembrance by students Eamon and Emma of Year 11 and trumpeter Lachlan of Year 10.

Classrooms and offices fell silent shortly before 11.00am as Mrs Jebbink introduced the ceremony, which was broadcast across the school’s public address system.

Eamon’s moving and thought-provoking speech included his own reflections on the meaning of Remembrance Day, and was followed by Emma’s reading of The Ode. Lachlan’s spine-tingling rendition of The Last Post then led us into a minute of silent reflection, before the observance was concluded with a rousing Reveille.

It is a privilege to have such capable students committed to leading the school on such significant occasions.

Imagine your brother; your father; cousin; best mate or close friend; your teacher ... people close to you ... going to a foreign country and never coming home. For thousands of Australian and world-wide families, this horrifying idea became a tragic reality, as the people they held dear to them fought for their nations, only to never return home.

Remembrance Day is a day to honour the lives lost, not only by our ANZAC soldiers, but also the soldiers of all nations, who may have been enemies, but fought for their own beliefs the same as we did. This year, 2014, commemorates the centenary of the beginning of WWI, which to this day still defines Australian soldiers for their valiant efforts ... in the muddy trenches of Verdenne to the sandy cliff faces of Gallipoli, the ANZAC and all ideals they stood for were forged with the strength they displayed and the blood they shed for their country.

We wear poppies to signify the blood shed on the fields of the fallen, and as we go on we will never forget nor dispel the efforts displayed through all wars, and the safety of soldiers in current combat operations. Lest we forget.

Eamon, Year 11

GRAND PIANO FUND

The Pennant Hills High School CAPA Faculty and Band Program would like to purchase a C3XPE 6’11” Grand Piano, at a cost of approximately $30,000, which will be located in the MPC. This piano would be used by senior students in their HSC Music performances and by accompanists for the HSC Music students, as well as in the Band Program, school musicals and at school ceremonies, including solo performances at events such as the Year 12 Graduation and Presentation Evening.

In 2013, the Music Faculty utilised faculty funding to hire a grand piano for the HSC Music performances, and in 2014 the P&C generously provided funds for such hire. However, covering the cost of hire is not sustainable long term, and we wish to provide the best possible opportunities for our student musicians.

In order to do this, we have set up the Grand Piano Fund whereby any member of the community or school family may make a contribution towards the purchase of a grand piano. We hope that this purchase will be something that is quite achievable in the near future.

Contributions would be gratefully accepted. To make a contribution, please contact Pennant Hills High School payments window between 8.00am and 3.00pm weekdays on 9473 5000. We are able to accept payments as cash, EFTPOS or cheque (payable to Pennant Hills High School).

DEPUTY PRINCIPAL’S REPORT

I would like to begin by saying what a great honour it is to be writing for my first Jumbunna. As a newly appointed staff member, my initial experience here at Pennant Hills High School has been fantastic. My transition into my role as Deputy Principal has been smooth and I have had strong support from all members of the school community.

My first five weeks have been eventful. I have had the pleasure of seeing the fruits of the ‘Great Penno Reno’; working with staff, students and community members at our joint strategic planning day; and also being warmly welcomed at my first P&C meeting. Furthermore, I was delighted to accept an invitation from our school captains Matt and Emma to attend their Prefect meeting which left me singing our school leaders’ praises as I watched an impressive, well run committee manage and organise core school business.

As a classroom teacher, I have also been impressed with the quality of the learning that takes place. I can see within my own classes that quality learning experiences are valued here at Pennant Hills High School and that our staff members always endeavour to deliver a high standard of both learning and curriculum enrichment programs.

On a different note, I intend to regularly deliver an important message regarding my observations with our students here at Pennant Hills High School. This week’s message addresses the end of year preparations and the finale of the schooling year. It is only natural for our students to want to switch off and relax, but I would like to send the message home to all students and the community that we need to continue to pursue excellence and meet learning outcomes up until the end of 2014. This is particularly applicable to our Year 11 students who have embarked on their HSC journey. In order to achieve our goal, our commitment must be maintained and consistent. Consistency is the key.

Additionally, in regards to Year 10, our current cohort has their Crossroads course and camp quickly approaching. Crossroads is a mandatory 25 hour PDHPE based course which explores emerging issues that adolescents face such as relationships and drug use. As a PDHPE teacher, I cannot convey strongly enough how valuable Crossroads is to adolescent development and I do encourage you all to support our students as they work through the course.

On a final note, it is a pleasure to be working here at Pennant Hills High School and I look forward to working with you in the future.

The following tips are provided by the Hornsby Ku-ring-gai Child and Family Health Service.

Getting out of the Door on Time
For many families, the morning rush hour is the most stressful time of the day. But with a good routine in place, you can get yourself and the kids out the door on time.

Make sure you leave yourself enough time to get ready in the morning. A good rule is to get yourself ready before the kids. You can prepare some things like lunches the night before to avoid the last minute rush.

Let your children know what the routine is ahead of time. Tell them exactly what they will need to do.

Younger kids can help out by learning to do things for themselves, like getting dressed and brushing their teeth, whilst older kids should be given the responsibility of doing these things for themselves. This teaches them how to be organised. Plus it saves you time.

You may even like to try the ‘beat the clock’ method. Your children’s goal is to be ready before the alarm goes off. If they win, they earn a small treat such as a favourite snack in their lunchbox. Clearly tell them what they need to do to win, and set a reasonable amount of time. Avoid repeating instructions or nagging them to hurry up.

It often takes only two weeks before this method has worked and can be phased out.

SCHOOL A TO Z

Providing practical help for parents, the Department of Education and Communities’ School A to Z website features useful information on a wide range of topics including homework and study, well-being, technology and conversations:

Skills in resilience encourage children to fare well in life. Research shows children with good resilience perform better at school and are less likely to take part in risky behaviour.

For tips on building resilient kids, visit:

STRESSLESS

Is school stressing you out?

Do you want to help your child prepare to succeed?

StressLess is a group program for students in Years 10-12 to learn practical strategies to manage stress.

Students will be taught by a psychologist how to navigate the stressful senior school years. The program has been developed in consultation with Dr Fiona Denton and is grounded in evidence-based Cognitive Behaviour Therapy.

Topics covered will include:

- Time management and healthy study habits
- Study/life balance – diet, exercise, leisure
- Relaxation and sleep strategies
- Defeating worries and unhelpful thoughts
- How parents can help their kids in the HSC

By learning to effectively manage their stress, students will have greater resources to cope with school and to maximise their potential.

Sessions will be run from our Pennant Hills premises. Call us to find out about our January or Term 1 program.

Happiness is a contagious goal for 2015.
I would like to suggest that we all make a goal for 2015—to make ourselves and other people happy. Over the past year, there have been tough times for many people. In tough times, it is important to increase the overall happiness in our lives.

The art of making yourself happy is something we can all learn and practise.

No-one is happy 100% of the time. As we all know, life has its ups and downs. Even so, there are some sure ways to increase your happiness.

1 Don't wait to see if you are having a good time. Instead of going to places and seeing if it is fun, decide in advance to have fun regardless of the circumstances. Enjoy the day regardless of the weather. Make the most of the occasion regardless of the company.

2 Go outside and play. You were told to do this as a kid and I am telling you to do it again; play more. Go for walks, throw a dog a stick, skip, sing loudly or imagine yourself to be a spy passing through enemy territory. Whatever does it for you. Make a promise to play more.

3 Develop deep friendships. Your friends are your true wealth. Value them and see them regularly. Let them know how important they are to you. Most people only have two close friends, so don't fool yourself into believing you are less popular than most people.

4 Increase the closeness of extended family. Keeping in close contact with your family gives you a support base for difficult times and also strengthens your sense of where you come from. Feeling you belong in a family is a powerful way of being happy.

5 Play to your strengths. Have a good long hard look at yourself. What are you good at? Make a commitment to develop your skills, talents and abilities as much as you can. If you don't develop your own unique talents, the world misses out.

6 Seek out groups that most strongly value what you have to offer. Finding the niche where your abilities are valued is the basis of success.

7 Avoid social groups where your unique attributes are not valued. Not everyone is going to like you or think you could amount to much. Get used to it. Accept that it is so, and then move on.

As Mark Twain wrote, Keep away from people who try to belittle your ambitions. Small people always do that, but the really great ones make you feel that you, too, can become great.

8 Live in the dreamtime. Dare to dream big dreams this year. Find and follow your passions. Make a promise to live a wonderful life.

9 Laugh a lot more. Find people, shows, books, films and situations that make you laugh, and surround yourself with them.

10 Have something bigger than yourself to believe in. Think about the contribution you can make while you are on his planet and do it.

11 Love as much as you can. This one small intention may be the most powerful way we could improve our lives.
